FANATICAL RELIGIOUS WAR IN TURKEY CAUSES THE DEATH

financial religionists who at Oukha, be-

PARTY OF FIVE HUNTERS RE-

SECURED EVERY ONE THEY

Probably the most successful deer killing party on record in this section is that which returned from Re-them six deer.

A party was composed of "Fred Stones," E. L. Poppy and T. O. Mc-Coy.

loading by wagon carrying with them necessary camp equipment and four good hands, two of them belonging to Mr. Nelson and two to Mr. Papp. They were to hunt and trap two parties each having two of the dogs.

Three of the party, Messers, Nelson, Papp and Hatfield, are veteran hunters and have shot many deer, but Fred Messers had only one to his credit, previously, and L. Lebold had no record of having a fine buck as the beginning of his hunting career.

All the deer shot were in excellent condition and the fine deer that fell to Mr. Messers was started up by him and was shot by him. The deer was a stag and was about the size and shape of a deer.

MURDERESS DYING OF CONSUMPTION.

SECOND TRIAL OF MRS. EMMA LEDOUX SET FOR NEXT WEEK,
BUT IT MAY BE POSTPONED.

STOCKTON, Cal., Jan. 29.—The second trial of Mrs. Emma Le Doux, convicted of having murdered Albert N. McVicar, her former husband, four years ago, is scheduled to begin here next week. During her long confinement in jail the woman has developed consumption and recently she has been reported to be in a serious condition. Whether her trial will begin next week or be indefinitely postponed will depend upon the report of the physician who attends her.

The crime for which Mrs. Le Doux was once tried and sentenced to death attracted attention throughout the country. McVicar, her alleged victim, is said to have threatened to make trouble between the woman and her second husband, Le Doux, whom she had married in the belief that McVicar was dead. In order to put McVicar out of the way she is alleged to have allured him to her home and killed him by administering poison in his coffee. The body of her victim was shipped to San Francisco in a trunk where its discovery by employees of the railroad company led to the arrest and conviction of the alleged murderess.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES TO START TRAINING SOON.

CLOSES HIS THEATRICAL EN-GAGEMENT TODAY IN CHICAGO WITH $50,000 ADDED TO HIS BANK ACCOUNT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—With $50,000 added to his bank account as a result of his ten weeks tour of the country, James J. Jeffries today winds up his theatrical engagement and will start at once to get into condition for his coming championship fight with Jack Johnson. Several weeks of hunting and fishing, with all the benefits to be derived from life in the open air and tramping through woods and over mountains, will figure as the first stunt on the big fighter's programme. Then will come the arduous grind of the training camp, which will continue up to within twenty-four hours of the battle for the championship.

Just where Jeffries training quarters will be established is still a matter of speculation. Either Southern California or Mexico will probably be selected as the scene for the preliminary training, with the final work-out near the battle ground, in San Francisco, Utah or elsewhere as the case may be. The work of training, wherever it may take place, will be conducted in a thorough manner. Good hard work will be the daily menu. The services of some of the cleverest boxers and wrestlers in the country have already been engaged and a host of trainers will assist in the work. It is evident that if Jeffries is not in the pink of condition when the gong calls him into the ring July 4th next, it will not be for lack of faithful training.

TEXAS BASE BALL LEAGUE MEETING

HOUSTON, Texas, Jan. 29 — The magnates of Texas Baseball League are rounding up in Houston for their annual schedule meeting tomorrow, when a number of perplexing problems in relation to the coming season are to be definitely settled. Rumors of proposed changes in the circuit have been in circulation for some time, but the indications now are that the circuit is likely to remain the same as it was last year.

BLOOD THAT CAUSED HYSTERIC WAS ONLY CURRANT JELLY.

PORTER WAS PAINTED RED FROM WAIST TO HEAD AND APPEAR-ED PREPARED TO JOIN THE DEAD.

It is a queer world with comedy and drama walking hand in hand upon the stage, and often in times of gravest danger and distress some ludicrous incident will intrude and relieve to an extent, the seriousness of the occasion, and thus was G. S. Brower's attention attracted in such manner to the plight of one of the porters on the Pullman train at the time of the collision, Thursday at Rockledge, when he and Mrs. Brower were passengers.

Mr. Brower says the porters of the train were gathered in the dining car when the crash came, and such a mix-up of porters, eatables, broken glass and china as resulted could never be imagined.

Gravy and other liquids were lavishly distributed, and one porter emerged from the car covered from head to waist with a sanguinary flood out of which caused one good lady to go into hysterics, but which proved on closer inspection to be the contents of a glass of jelly which the man was holding in his hand at the moment of the collision.

GREAT REJOICING IN PARIS OVER THE FALLING OF RIVER SEINE —DANGER NOW PAST.

PARIS, Jan. 29.—The river Seine has been falling steadily since one o'clock this morning. It is now officially announced that the flood danger is past and scenes of joy are evident throughout the city, despite the terrible suffering and devastation. The sun is now showing and some traffic has been resumed for relief purposes. Many stores have been reopened.

The government plans an immediate inspection of every house in Paris, and it is believed that hundreds will be condemned as unsafe.

The danger of pestilence is serious. The food problem for the poor is a difficult one, but relief trains are assisting to relieve the situation. It will take at least two years to restore the city, even more to restore some of the buildings destroyed. Many deaths, yet unknown, are expected to be discovered when the water recedes.

Notwithstanding the receding flood, many buildings are still caving in and it is expected that the total loss will be augmented by fifty million from this cause.

MANY "BOOZE" SELLERS HAVE BEEN ROUNDED UP BY SHERIFF SMITH.

FIVE ALREADY CHARGED WITH ILLICIT SALE OF LIQUOR FOR NEXT TERM OF CRIMINAL COURT.

Sheriff E. L. Smith came over from DeLand today to take back to the county seat Annie Staples, of Ormond, a colored "lady" charged with the illicit sale of liquor.

Sheriff Smith returned from Jacksonville yesterday, where he went to get Isaac Richbow, a colored man charged with a like offense. The sheriff raided Richbow's dive, which was located in close proximity to the county jail, several weeks ago, and captured a wagon load of "booze". He was "toting" the ambre fluid in three baskets and leading the negro beside him, when Richbow made a break for liberty and escaped. Sheriff Smith dropped his load and pulling his revolver fired several shots at the negro, one bullet striking in the leg. Richbow escaped, however, but was later rounded up by the Jacksonville police, and now languishes in jail at DeLand.

There are now awaiting trial on the charge of illegal sale of liquor in the County of Volusia, four men and three women, all of color.

The steamer Dixie carried Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Perkins and maid, and a quantity of supplies to Mr. Perkins' winter home at Bulow yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins arrived Wednesday from Hartford, Conn., and were temporarily at the Despland.

MEAT SALES ARE FALLING IN NEW YORK.

MEAT SALES FALLEN OFF FROM THIRTY TO FORTY PER CENT.
IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Despite the statement of leading Chicago meat companies that they are not curtailing shipments of meat eastward, retail butchers here declare today that sales have fallen off thirty to forty per cent. They insist however that they cannot reduce prices permanently, as packers will merely kill less. They insist that if packers continue shipping many carloads of meat will spoil, as cold storage houses are packed and the demand is not sufficient to empty them.

A conference will be held next week.

ARAGUA FOR UNDUE FRIEND-LINESS TO PRESIDENT MADRIZ

BLUEFIELDS, Jan. 29 — Admiral Kimball, commanding the American fleet in Nicaraguan waters was accused today by natives and American residents of undue friendliness to President Madriz. Admiral Kimball's warning to American residents of take no part in the revolution under penalty of forfeiting American protection, has caused intense indignation, being construed as evidence that the United States will recognize the Madriz government despite the outcome of the revolution.

INTERESTING ACCOUNT OF GAINESVILLE CONVENTION.

Rev. A. L. Abercrombie and delegate, H. G. Wilson, returned Friday night from Gainesville, where they had been in attendance at the State Baptist Convention, which convened in that city last Monday.

Mr. Abercrombie reports it as one of the largest conventions ever held. There were about 400 delegates, most of whom were ministers. The Women's Missionary Union met at the same time.

The principal speakers were, Dr. Gray, of the Home Mission Board of the South; Dr. Frost, of the Sunday School Board of the Baptist Convention; Dr. Hobson, of the First Baptist Church of Jacksonville; Dean Smith, of Stetson University; Dr. W. Tribble, president of Columbia College of Lake City. Dr. C. E. W. Dobbs, of Fernandina, preached the opening sermon. The work of the denomination in the State was the principal theme under discussion.

Nearly $5,000 was raised for Columbia College and nearly $800 for the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. The Daytona delegates were well entertained by Mrs. R. McClellan.

St. PETERSBURG, Jan. 29.—Latest advices from the Russian Commander in Turkestan says that twelve hundred persons have been killed by fanatical religious war at Bokhara, between Mohammedans and Persian sun worshippers. KILLED SIX FINE DEER IN THREE DAYS HUNT.

PARTY OF FIVE HUNTERS RE-TURN WITH SIX DEER, HAVING SECURED EVERY ONE THEY SAW.

Probably the most successful deer hunting party on record in this section is that which returned from Bull Island Friday morning, bringing with them six deer.

The party was composed of Fred Stones, R. L. Pappy and T. O. Melton, of this city, and Mr. Melton's brother-in-law, L. K. Hatfield, and friend, H. Lobdell, of Miami, who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Melton on Baker street.

They left this city early Monday morning by wagon carrying with them necessary camp equipment and four good hounds, two of them belonging to Mr. Melton and two to Mr. Pappy. When hunting they formed two parties each having two of the dogs.

Three of the party, Messrs. Melton, Pappy and Hatfield, are veteran hunters and have shot many deer, but Fred Stones had only one to his credit, previously, and H. Lobdell had the glory of bagging a fine buck as the beginning of his hunting career.

All the deer shot were in excellent condition and the fine doe that fell to Mr. Stones was started up by him when the dogs were not at hand and was shot among the saw grass nearly shoulder high.

At one time all four dogs were running different deer, and at another the hounds of five different hunting parties were in full cry within a small radius, making a perfect bedlam of noise.

The only thing occurring to mar the trip was the loss of one of Mr. Pappy's dogs, which was left somewhere in the woods. It is hoped the hound will join one of the numerous hunting parties in that vicinity and sometime in the future be returned to the owner.

Bull Island is a knoll of ground surrounded by marsh land and lying about thirty miles south and west of Daytona.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS TO BE TRIED.

INTERVIEW IN THE TRIAL IS GROWING ACUTE, NOT ONLY IN RUSSIA, BUT ALL OVER THE WORLD.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 29 — The trial of Nicholas Tchaikovsky, a Russian revolutionist and terrorist, is set for next week and is the most important trial in the history of the hearing, already in progress in Russia as well as in the United States and England, is growing more acute every day. It is almost a foregone conclusion that both defendants will be convicted as the government seems determined to make an example of the two revolutionists whose influence is greatly feared by the reactionary element. Even the most optimistic friends of the accused feel constrained to admit that only the fact that both defendants are over sixty years of age may, to some extent, mitigate the rigor of their sentences.

It is unfortunate for the revolutionists that, thanks to the thorough system of espionage maintained by the police department of the country, the Russian government is in possession of a strong chain of evidence, supported by scores of police spies in the ranks of the revolutionists and among the members of terrorist organizations throughout the empire. The joint indictment against Tchaikovsky and Mme. Breshkovskaya was served on them on December 22nd, is a document of fifty-eight pages and contains a minute account of the career of the defendants, enumerating a long series of acts tending to show that both accused were revolutionists of long standing and prominently connected with revolutionary agitation and terrorist plots in various parts of the country. The charges are supported by depositions of witnesses, mostly renegade revolutionists and police spies. Particular weight is given to the connection of the defendants with the conferences of the central revolutionary committee at which plans for armed uprisings and terrorist plots were discussed.

Tchaikovsky is quoted as making speeches in favor of regicide, and Mme. Breshkovskaya as avowing participation in the preparation for the assassination of Von Plehve, Grand Duke Sergius and Constantine Pobedonostsev, procurator general of the Holy Synod. Both, it is alleged, were members of the Peasants' Union and the United Agrarian disorders in various parts of Russia. The indictment separately charges Tchaikovsky with having visited the United States in 1907 to arrange for the shipment of arms to Russia and to collect funds for revolutionary purposes.

The testimony which charges Tchaikovsky with inciting the murder of the czar rests on the proceedings of the social revolutionary conference at Stockholm, Finland, in March, 1907, at which the renegade Axelsson, while he was furnishing daily reports to the Russian police at the same time.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicer. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO

Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK

A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road [passing Number Nine] and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

LAKE HELEN

Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

THE MABEL PAIGE COMPANY NEXT WEE.

Miss Mabel Paige, supported by her excellent company will be here two nights, commencing Wednesday, February 2nd, opening in the domestic comedy drama "Tempest and Sunshine," based upon certain incidents of the book by Mary J. Holmes, of the same name. All the principal characters are shown in the play, in fact the dramatization follows very closely the book. As nearly everyone has read the book a full detail is hardly needed.

Miss Paige as "Sunshine," Miss Loundsberry, as "Tempest," the two daughters of Joshua Middleton, and as their names imply, furnish very strong acting parts. Chas. F. Ward, as the father of the two girls, has an excellent part. Mr. Luce, Mr. Whitman and Mr. Lawrence, all have excellent parts. The comedy, of which there is a great quantity, will be furnished by Mr. DePew, Miss Hurlbush, Miss Clements and Mr. Carleton.

"Tempest and Sunshine" will be presented for four performances in Jacksonville and it is an assured fact a most finished production will be given, as the Mabel Paige Co., are noted for this. The play for the second night will be announced later.

NEW COMMANDER OF

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 29—Capt. W. T. Turner assumed command of the Mauretania with its sailing today. It is stated that the Mauretania and the Lusitania will hereafter be in charge of comparatively young men.

CANADA'S THREE-CORNERED ELECTION

OTTAWA, Jan. 29—Bye-elections are being held today to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Sir Wilfred Laurier, and nominations will take place next week. The contest will be bitter, three different parties being engaged in the fight for political supremacy.

MANAGER FALCONIO TO CONSECRATE CHURCH

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 29—The Catholic clergy and laity of Providence and vicinity turned out in force today to greet Mr. Falconio apostolic delegate to the United States, on the occasion of his first visit to Rhode Island. Mr. Falconio comes to preside at the consecration tomorrow of the new Church of the Holy Ghost. The ceremony will be attended by many high prelates of the church.

FREDERICK OF DENMARK FOUR YEARS A KING

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 29—Frederick VIII today began the fifth year of his reign as king of Denmark, and the anniversary was made the occasion of much rejoicing in Copenhagen and throughout the nation.

Frederick has proved a highly popular monarch and a worthy son of King Christian IX. The second son of the king is Haakon VII, king of Norway. The Danish king is a brother of Queen Alexandra of England, King George of Greece and the Dowager Empress of Russia.

W. C. T. U. MET YES-TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the Social Hall, Congregational church yesterday afternoon.

An entertaining program had been prepared, and a full attendance was expected but the thunder shower coming up shortly before the meeting hour reduced the attendance to a quorum meeting. However, the faithful few present had an enjoyable session though no business of importance came up. Miss L. A. Cross was chairman pro tem in the absence of Mrs. Herman G. Porter, and the meeting adjourned until the last Friday in February.

THE BIRTHDAY CAKE MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

A birthday celebration was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McDonald, on Cottage avenue, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Mrs. McDonald's brother, Tom Ditson, who holds a position with the Southern Express company at this place.

A large and toothsome cake had been prepared by Mrs. McDonald, but when the time came to place it on the table, it had mysteriously disappeared and the feast had to proceed without it.

Today one of the boarders is suffering with a pain below the belt and dark suspicion rests upon him as the guilty party.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

"RATS."

My dear girl— Did you know that from a mere man's standpoint the present style of using "rats," or rolls, to puff out your hair is not a pretty one?

I dare not say it is hideous. That would be personal.

One scarcely wonders, therefore, that many of the department stores and other places where girls or women are employed absolutely prohibit the use of "rats."

One naturally asks: Why should a girl try to disguise the shape of her head?

Of course if the head is ill shaped there might be some excuse, but really there is nothing more exquisite than the usual well shaped head of a girl poised on a handsome neck.

And why cover the forehead? Along with the fashion of enormously puffing out the hair is the further successful attempt at hiding the forehead by a mass of hair.

The forehead of a human being is the leading indicative feature of intelligence. It is the result of the slow evolution, by thousands of years and upward tendency, of the low brow of the primitive man.

Why try to hide this noble feature as if the face were that of a poodle dog?

The "rat" is made of false hair, and whatever is false and artificial cannot be beautiful as nature is beautiful.

Besides— The "rat" is dangerous. A young girl of North Bergen, N. J., actually contracted leprosy from her "new transformation." The hair of the roll had been taken from the head of a deceased Chinaman.

Fact! Ought not the horrible incident be a warning?

It is impossible to trace the history of false hair. And you do not know what germs of disease you are binding up in the midst of your hair.

Do you not think nature is the better judge of what is most attractive in you?

Art may sometimes help some in beautifying your face and figure, but it should always be remembered that art is imitation, and an imitation is hard to conceal. The "made up" woman runs the risk of discovery.

Am I an old fogey?

Well, so rapidly does fashion change that when you read this article "rats" already may be largely relegated to the limbo where they belong.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS

TO BE TRIED.

The court before which Tchaikovsky and Mme. Breshkovskaya will be tried consists of the presiding judge, officially representing the government and one delegate each from the noble, citizen and peasant classes. The case has created profound interest in the United States and Great Britain and some time ago a petition signed by five hundred citizens of New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia was sent to Premier Stolypin, requesting that the two defendants be given an open and public trial, "in accordance with the time honored principles of justice in all nations." In view of the fact that justice is practically unknown in judicial proceedings in Russia, especially in cases where the defendants are suspected or known revolutionists, and of the additional fact that the government and the police authorities feel extremely bitter against the accused, little hope is entertained for a favorable outcome of the joint trial. Tchaikovsky and Mme. Breshkovskaya have both visited the United States and have hosts of friends and sympathizers in this country, who will anxiously await the final result. Mme. Breshkovskaya has spent the two years since her arrest in December of 1907 in the terrible dungeons of the fortress of Saints Peter and Paul. Tchaikovsky spent but a short time in the same fortress when his health broke down and he was released on $25,000 bail, furnished by American and English sympathizers. He lived quietly in the outskirts of St. Petersburg and for a few months in the Crimea, to recover his shattered health. He has collected much testimony and hopes to be able to prove an alibi in many instances.

Tchaikovsky was one of the pioneers of the revolutionary movement in Russia, and founded the first revolutionary circle in St. Petersburg in 1896. Twice he was arrested and finally was compelled to leave Russia. He went to Switzerland and then to the United States, engaged in agitation. In 1878 he returned to Europe and not until after the amnesty of November 2, 1905 did he dare to return to Russia. He continued his active propaganda and was finally arrested in December 1907.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE SHOULD MEET AGAIN.

THE PRIMARY CALL IS CLEARLY PROVEN TO BE ILLEGAL AND

IN THE MINDS OF DEMOCRATS WILL NOT BE BINDING.

Nearly every newspaper in Florida which has commented on the action of the State Democratic Committee held here recently is emphasizing the errors made and urging that the committee call another meeting and issue a call according to the law, as the one just issued is illegal besides being distasteful to the Democratic voters of the State says the Jacksonville Metropolis.

No one charges any unworthy motives on the part of the committee, as the errors made are due to ignorance of the law and the rights given to the members. The Metropolis was the first to discover these errors, and that the mistakes are serious ones is evidenced by the criticisms in the State press. Unless these mistakes are rectified there is a belief that they will result in much friction, and, in the minds of many, the results of the primary will not be binding on Democrats. It is said that several State Senators have taken this view.

The Pensacola Journal, in speaking of the matter, says:

"The state Executive Committee seems to have made more than one mistake in the primary call which it adopted at its Jacksonville meeting. The Journal, therefore, suggests that the committee again get together and correct its numerous errors."

"The committee's first error was in exceeding its authority by leaving the offices of Circuit judge and State's attorney out of the primary. Its other errors consisted in its failure—no doubt, an unintentional failure—to include the office of United States Senator in the primary call, and of making a provision for the payment of poll taxes in direct conflict with the State law governing such provision. There may also be other errors which have not yet come to light."

"Now, in view of all these circumstances, the committee should do one of two things, viz: It should reassemble and correct its errors, or it should do so by referendum vote of the members. The campaign committee can easily prepare a form for each member to fill out, sign and return to the chairman, and the members can thereby authorize and ratify such changes as are necessary to correct these mistakes."

"If Chairman Price and his campaign committee will get busy at once the matter will soon be settled."

EXCELLENT PRINTING

A new press has also been installed by the Daily News—a Mergenthaler Linotype is also among the new acquisitions to

HOUGH TO TRY PANAMA CASE.

The trial of the Panama canal libel case, which involves statements published in the New York World regarding the purchase of the canal property, is scheduled to be heard by Judge Charles M. Hough of the United States circuit court for the southern district of New York. The alleged libelous statements were published during the last presidential campaign and roused the ire of Mr. Roosevelt to such an extent that he demanded the prosecution of the publishers of the World. Henry A. Wise, United States district attorney, will be in charge of the prosecution. John D. Lindsay and De Lancey Nicol will defend the publishers.

TAKING A LAW CASE

By DAVID WATERS.
(Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.)

"Here is a letter from a client of ours, a Mme. Dubois," said the head of the firm, "asking us to send a man to her at L. about litigation as to real estate she is interested in. Take the afternoon train. She'll meet you."

It was Saturday, and I feared to get caught in a country town over Sunday, but I was not accustomed to make suggestions to my chief and did not dare propose a delay. I arrived at L. just before the dinner hour, and, passing out of the station, I saw a lady about twenty-five years old sitting alone in a buggy and keeping her eyes on the throng of arrivals. It occurred to me that she might have come to meet me, and I stopped before her. The moment her gaze was fixed on me a sudden look of joyful wonder came into her eyes.

"Are you Mme. Dubois?" I asked.
"I am."
"And I am Edmond Boyer, with Twining & Twining, attorneys."

"Ah, c'est vous (it is you) I have been expecting."

I got into the buggy with her, and she drove me to her home. As soon as we alighted she began to stare at me. Then she said to me in broken French:

"Pardon. You are the image of my late husband. When I saw you at the station I thought for a moment you were he arisen from the dead. You bear a French name, I see. You must be of French extraction."

"My father came to America from Dijon before I was born."

"From Dijon? My husband's family live there. I came from Paris a few months ago. I am here to secure some property that was owned by my uncle, who came here years ago."

Mme. Dubois showed me her husband's likeness, and my resemblance to him was astonishing. It was evident that he and I had sprung from the same stock. His widow must have loved him very dearly, for she could not disguise her feelings at meeting one who resembled him, and she treated me as though I were he who had returned to her.

My feelings at this treatment were singular. While it was pleasant to be coddled by a pretty woman, my amour propre was ruffled at being the recipient of especial attentions as the representation of another—a dead man. At one moment I would experience a delicious gladness, at the next would knit my brows at the thought that I was being worshiped as a wooden idol. Then when Mme. Dubois saw that I was troubled she would give me a piteous look from her big black liquid eyes, and I was in heaven again.

My widow spoke but little English, and I not a word of French. The consequence was that we fell into pantomime, and pantomime is often more expressive than words. Indeed, love can be better indicated by one look than by a dozen languages. I soon got used to representing another and discovered that any omission of a display of affection for the dead had a harrowing effect on the living.

Of course I did not get a proper knowledge of the business Mme. Dubois wished to intrust to the firm of Twining & Twining before the last train had left Saturday night. She declined to take the matter up on Sunday. She was very methodical. Her first inquiry was what would be the amount charged for legal services. I had been instructed to ask for a retaining fee of $50, but declined to name any future amount. Next she gave me an account of how the property had been acquired and lastly a statement of claims made upon it by builders and others.

I had been looking into the case of Mme. Dubois three days when I received a note from my employer asking when I would return. I replied that, since our client spoke very little English, much time must be spent in getting the facts. Two days later I received a peremptory order to return at once.

I was standing in the hall bidding Mme. Dubois goodby when she said to me:

"Ze retaining l'argent? Must I pay now?"

"My firm usually collects that before taking a case."

"Comblen—how much did you say it was?"

I had forgotten that I had given her an amount and replied that it would be $100.

"Cent dollar!" she exclaimed, surprised. "You are dearer to me than when we were first engaged."

In love effects are as likely to be produced by blunders as by properly expressed ideas. Lovers may be separated or united by mistaking the meaning of a word. I knew full well the widow meant that my charge was greater than when I had first named it, but I refused to put any such interpretation upon her statement. Clasp her in my arms, I cried:

"And you are dearer to me than my life!"

It mattered not to her that I had apparently mistaken her meaning, and it mattered not to me that I was to stand not for myself, but in the place made vacant by her late husband. She yielded to my caresses, and before leaving for the train I was "engaged" not as an attorney, but as a lover.

"Mr. Boyer," said my chief sternly when I next stood in his office, "you have been away an interminable while. We have needed you greatly."

"I am—I mean we are engaged," I stammered.

"Big case?"

"Immense. I'm going into it heart and soul."

Too Easily Deceived.

Mrs. Herlihy looked with marked disfavor on the mongrel dog which her husband brought home one night, saying he had met an old friend, who gave him the animal "as a present."

"What kind of a dog is he?" demanded Mrs. Herlihy.

"Me friend didn't say," responded Mr. Herlihy vaguely. "'Tis well you know, Cella, you can't be axin' all sorts o' questions whin 'tis a present you're gettin'. But he said the dog was a grand watchdog and a great fighter."

Just at that point in the conversation, which took place at the door of the Herlihy residence, with Mrs. Herlihy standing guard before the entrance, a small black and tan terrier dashed up the four steps and made a yapping salute to the lately acquired treasure. To Mr. Herlihy's chagrin, his dog gave one dismayed yelp and fled, disappearing down a neighboring alley.

"He may be a great fighter," said Mrs. Herlihy in a withering tone, "but he's a poor judge o' dogs, that new wan o' yours."—Youth's Companion.

*BOAT FOR SALE, finest and best

E. D. W. ROSE, Daytona.

In some social circles, queer customs prevail, to make mental worth the measuring scale; while in others it's music, or travel, or wit which offers a welcome to those who are fit.
In some, it is money which opens the gate to social affairs which assume to be great. In some it's a hobby, like golf, or a game, which opens a "bridge" to temples of fame. Thus society often divides on such lines, and offers its favors to the funny
"combinations." But a clever new plan of choosing the best—of securing the most desirable guests—of wisely dividing the sheep from the goats—is to limit the list to claw-hammer coats.

breeze avenue, Daytona Beach. Norversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

ENJOYED FISHING TRIP TO SPRUCE CREEK BRIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Ozias, of Miamisburg, Ohio, who are spending the winter in Daytona, accompanied Mr. and Mrs.
J. L. Gunn and children and Mrs.
Gunn's mother, Mrs. J. J. McDow, on a fishing excursion to Spruce Creek yesterday morning, returning in the afternoon. They drove down to Spruce Creek bridge and fished and ate a picnic lunch in that vicinity.

Several fish, new and strange to Mr.
and Mrs. Ozias, were captured, among them a stingray.

They enjoyed a very pleasant outing, although the rain of the afternoon shortened their pleasure but failed to dampen their spirits.

A FINE PERFORMANCE AT OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

The Pickerts and their stock company of sixteen people scored another triumph in their production of the Myron Leffingwell version of St. Elmo. The play seemed to be properly staged and every character well portrayed. Special mention is due to Miss Lillian Pickert and Val
C. Cleary, also Grace and Blanche Pickert, Clint Dodson, Bert Edwards, in fact the entire cast was well balanced and the play gave the best of satisfaction. The illustrated songs and the specialties by the Four Pick-erts are the up-to-date latest arrangements.

The Captain's Double, a four-act military comedy drama, with new specialties will close the Pickerts present engagement.

BROKEN ARM RESULT OF JUMP FROM SWING.

Robert Sperry, a sixth grade pupil of the public school, received a broken arm as the result of a high jump from a swing.

The accident happened at the home of W. E. Blodgett. Arthur Blodgett and certain of his boy friends, Robert among the number, were having fine sport in the back yard swinging out on a rope swing, the other end of which was tied in the bows of a tree, making a high jump at its longest distance. In doing this stunt Robert Sperry fell with his arm under him with the above result. He was taken to Rev. S. D. Gammell's apartment house, where his father, Harry B. Sperry, a season sojourner, is spending the winter with his family, and the doctor was summoned. On examination it was found that one of the bones of the right arm was broken; it was promptly set and the patient is reported as getting along very nicely this morning.

Mysterious disappearances of in-what has become of the red automobile, which was driven across the North Bridge at a late hour Sunday night, ran into the concrete wall around the oak tree at the east end of the North Bridge, and finally crashed into a palm tree, in front of the residence of Geo. W. Wells? The last seen of it, it was being drawn away by horses, since which time it seems to have vanished from the public eye. By the impact on the tree, it must more nearly resemble a scrap iron heap than an automobile.
